

▶ Box Icer Model No. BI-1

▶ The Cantrell Box Icer is an efficient and easy way to ice finished products. An electrical motor turns augers inside the Icer while holding area sensors call for ice when needed. The control panel can be customized to meet the individual needs of the customer to allow timed delivery of ice to the product. The Box Icer is compact and constructed of stainless steel.

▶ Box Icer Model No. Bi-1

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

Power:	Per customer specification
Position in line:	Inline with conveyor
Construction:	Stainless steel
Width:	See drawing
Length:	See drawing
Height:	See drawing

The specifications as stated herein are the most current at the time of publication. However, consistent with our standard of continual product improvement, we reserve the right to change the design without notice or obligation to modify any equipment previously sold or delivered.