

▶ Ergo Stands

▶ Cantrell Ergo Stands provide optimal comfort and strain reduction for processing personnel. Stands are adjustable to accommodate the individual needs of each person and are available in free-standing or mounted models. Constructed of stainless steel and fibergrate, stands are available in standard sizes or can be designed per customer specifications.

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATIONS

Capacity:	Per customer specification
Construction:	Stainless steel and fibergrate
Width:	24 in. / 610 mm std. / Per customer specification
Height:	Per customer specification
Depth:	18 in. / 457 mm std. / Per customer specification

The specifications as stated herein are the most current at the time of publication. However, consistent with our standard of continual product improvement, we reserve the right to change the design without notice or obligation to modify any equipment previously sold or delivered.